NAME: Grace M Field

POSITION:

ORGANISATION:

SUBMISSION1: Alcohol should be taxed on the alcohol content, sliding from next to nothing for the really low ones to quite high for the higher content beers/wines/spirits. This should have been done years ago.

The legal drinking age should be lifted back up to 21, this may stop 14/15 year old getting Drink.

If we had had as many soldiers killed and maimed in Iraq as we have had people killed and maimed on the road from alcohol in the same length of time, there would have been be a national out cry for the soldiers to be bought home even faster than they are.

Smokes should be taxed on the nicoten content.

Fast food ads should be banned in Childrens TV viewing time, and fast food toys should be outlawed.

Everyone should be taught how to say no, to the children and to themselves.

Government should just do it, no more mucking about.
